NO. 76.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Kirby Teater has been appointed Postmaster at Loyd, Garrard county, vice, J. T. Hicks, resigned.

Sheriff Broadus arrested Charles Davis in Madison on a warrant from Bell county, charging house-burning.

State Troops are guarding the Somerset jail to prevent the lynching of James Pierce and son, Walter, who killed Taylor Sullivan on election day.

John Rowsey, son of George Rowsey, who was killed near Junction City many years ago, was killed by a falling tree while coon hunting near Parksville.

S. H. Brinton, of Lebanon, and H. T. Gratz, of Louisville, have been in Danville figuring on establishing an automobile line between that place and Junction City and also another line between Danville and Lancaster.

In the Derby trial of fox hounds at Lawrenceburg Jack P. Chinn's Sal was awarded the cup for speed and driving. Sal came first, Mr. Chinn's Lady second and R. H. Crooks' Whit Lewis third. In hunting and trailing Whit Lewis was first, Sal second and Lady third.

In accord with its plan to provide fifty counties with adequate warehouse facilities, the Burley Tobacco and Insurance Company approved conditionally the purchase of the Bonta Warehouse at Harrodsburg, with a capacity of 1,000,000 pounds, the purchase of two acres of ground at Lawrenceburg and five acres at Mt. Sterling.

Fred Lake, a Mercer county convict, was pardoned and the figure 13 seems to control every important event in his life. He was born on the 13th, was accused of committing an assault on his sister-in-law on the 13th, was arrested on the 13th, tried and convicted on the 13th, sentenced to 13 years in the penitentiary, was received at the penitentiary on the 13th, was pardoned on the 13th, and he is the 13th child of his parents. When he was released the money at the penitentiary awaiting for him amounted to $13.13.

County Judge Ford, of Garrard, who was in the city last night, told a Gazette reporter that the statement printed in the Herald in a dispatch from Frankfort that owing to the fact that Auditor James had discovered that he had been drawing money for idiots that were dead, he would try to escape prosecution by not qualifying for a second term to which he was recently elected, is not true. Judge Ford has been out of the State for several days and had no information of the matter until he came to Lexington. He positively contradicted the statement and said that he would qualify as surely as he lived till Jan. 1. Auditor James has done all he can in the matter growing out of the misunderstanding and the judge said that he did not intend to be bluffed by him or anyone else. Judge Ford is a democrat and says no republican shall ever hold the office to which the people elected him.—Lexington Gazette.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. S. M. Logan, of Wilmore, is engaged in a revival at Munfordsville.

The topic for prayer meeting at the Methodist church Thursday night is "Love Greater Than Alms-giving." Bring your Bibles. Pastor.

Rev. J. T. Hoskins, of Elkton, preached two excellent sermons at the Baptist church Sunday. The congregation was greatly pleased with him.

The Memphis Conference of the Methodist Church, South, in session at Greenfield, Tenn., accepted the invitation of the Broadway Methodist church to meet in Paducah next year.

Rev. D. M. Walker is conducting an interesting meeting at Mt. Xenia, which will continue through the week if not longer. There have been eight confessions and a general awakening of the church members.

Forced Into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Ocala, was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1. trial bottle free, guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

The Deacon—Mr. Skinner, you put a bad quarter in the collection yesterday.

Mr. Skinner—Yes, sir, but you must admit it was a pretty bum sermon, too.

Penny says Hyomel is so pleasant to use. Just breathe in and cure catarrh by killing the germs. Outfit including inhaler only $1. Money back if it does not cure.

HUSTONVILLE.

Mrs. Belle Floyd, of Mt. Salem, has a severe case of grip. Hudson Bohon is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jeffers, in Louisville.

Bird hunters galore are here to invade the sacred precincts of Casey, Pittsburg, Pa., and even New York have representatives in the crowd.

The Hustonville Hunting and Fishing Club left Monday for their two weeks' outing on the banks of Green river. There are several invited guests from Danville, Covington and Cincinnati, besides Frank Rohan, of Erlanger, and Charles Cody, of Detroit, Mich.

Miss Lula Mae Bruce, of Danville, is a guest of the Misses Alcorn. Mrs. J. W. Hughes, of Frankfort, who has a fine soprano voice, rendered a solo at the morning service at the Christian church in a most impressive manner. She is the guest of her sister, Miss Lula Cochran, at Hotel Weatherford.

Sam Montgomery and Miss Stella Hubble, the accomplished teacher of McKinney, were married recently. Leo Linthicum, adopted son of the late J. W. Linthicum, and Miss Eliza Brackett were married Nov. 6 by Rev. John Mason and are happily keeping house in the late home of his father. The bride is from Garrard county, where she has many friends.

John Purdom, who manages the loose leaf tobacco warehouse at Moreland, reports having bought half a million pounds at prices at 8 to 14c. The market has not fairly opened yet but it is no unusual sight to see a dozen wagons standing in front of his place waiting to be inspected. Several million pounds will come in from Casey and Russell counties by Jan. 1st.

Engineer Matt Horton, who runs a train between Frankfort and Paris, proved himself a hero last week. Between Georgetown and Frankfort there is a high trestle. As his train approached this trestle Horton discovered that the rear wheels of his engine were off the track and that unless he stopped the train, his engine would go off the bridge. With great courage he reversed his engine and stuck to his post. The fireman jumped, but Horton knowing the safety of the passengers depended upon him, staid with his engine and thus averted a disastrous wreck. Mr. Carnegie could not bestow a medal on a more worthy man than Matt Horton. He is well-known in this section, having married a daughter of Col. Jim McWhorter, of Middleburg, several years ago.

Mr. Bright on Isaac Hubbard's Relic.

The relic of pioneer times shown me by Mr. Isaac Hubbard and in relation to the locality of the finding and time of entering the land on which it was found, I find the following facts from the records of the Lincoln county clerk's office: That on March 21, 1781, Daniel McCormack entered 750 acres of land lying on both sides of the Hanging Fork of Dick's river and adjoining the lands of the settlement of Isaac Shelby and on the old trace from Big Flat Lick on Col. Benjamin Logan to Knob Lick, which was Isaac Shelby's settlement. Isaac Shelby was the first surveyor for the Henderson Land Company (afterwards the Transylvania Land Co.) He surveyed the lands of his settlement as surveyor for the Henderson Land Co. in 1775. Daniel McCormack gave 250 acres of the entry of 750 acres on the West end to William McCormack. That is the tract this cup was found on. I do not think this was used for a dripping cup, but after studying over all the equipment of a Kentucky hunter of that day, I find the gun was indispensable and as they used the old flint lock, he had to have a supply of flints to operate his gun. They could not be carried loose in his shot-pouch so the cup was made to carry the flints and it slipped into a buckskin sack and then into the breast pocket of his hunting shirt. As Capt. Dick, a friendly Indian (Dick's river takes its name from this Indian) remarked on an occasion when he and one of the longhunters were together and a fine, large buck stepped into an open place. Dick saw it first. He had the right of the first shot and he raised his gun. His flint being out of fix it did not strike fire. The white man fired and killed the deer, when Dick said: "Indian's gun no fire, no shoot; white man's gun heap fire, big shoot."

JOHN BRIGHT, SR.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made. Dr. Shoop created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor—is made in just one minute. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Penny's Drug Store.

Hugh McIntosh, the fight promoter, has cabled an offer of a purse of $75,000 for the battle between James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson. The purse probably is offered with the expectation of holding the fight in the Olympia, London.

NEWS NOTES.

A driving snow storm fell in Northern Nebraska Friday afternoon.

State University defeated Transylvania 77 to 0 at Lexington Saturday.

Tenny, once a great race horse, died at the farm of David Tenny Pulsifer in New York.

The head waiter at Delmonico's in New York has just died leaving an estate of $500,000.

Maj. E. W. Hawkins, aged 95 years, the oldest lawyer in Kentucky, died at his home in Newport.

Frank Czoisgolsz, brother of the anarchist who killed president McKinley, is dead at Aberdeen, Wash.

Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, recently declared that football, as played in America, is barbarous.

Raymond Patterson, for many years head of the Washington bureau of the Chicago Tribune, is dead in Washington city.

Edward Hoff, a farmer, confessed at Indianapolis that he pushed his wife off a bridge. The body was recently found in White river.

Tilden Blanton and Ashford Joseph, who killed Demosthenes Noble in Breathitt county on election day, were granted bail in $5,000 each.

Walker Kennedy, for years editorial writer of the Commercial-Appeal, and one of the most widely known newspaper men of the South, died suddenly at Memphis.

By an explosion in the Hagley yard of the Du pont Powder Co., near Wilmington, Del., three men were killed and several injured. Two mills were destroyed.

A wild-eyed suffragette armed with a horse whip attacked Winston Spencer Churchill at Bristol, England, and it was only after a struggle that she was restrained.

The hurricane that swept over Hayti wrought immense damage, the extent of which it is as yet impossible to determine, but up to the present no news has been received of any serious loss of life.

Albert Steenstra, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was found dead in bed at a hotel at Vevey, Ind., with his skull crushed. He died an hour later. Edward Kincaid is in jail charged with the murder.

Explosion and fire, under circumstances identical with those of the Brooklyn comb factory fire of Monday in which nine persons perished, cost the lives of two employees of a comb factory in Manhattan Thursday. Nine persons were injured.

The immense plant of the Union Distilling Company, known as the Edgemont Springs Distillery, at Carthage, a suburb of Cincinnati, was almost destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000, fully covered by insurance.

Will James, a Negro who partially confessed to the murder of Miss Annie Pelley at Cairo, Ill., was hanged to the public arch in that city by a mob of 10,000 persons. James' body was riddled by bullets and afterward burned at the scene of the murder.

The Detroit United Railway acceded conditionally to the city's demand of $300 a day for the use of streets upon which franchises are said to have expired Sunday. The company specifies that it waives no rights and that the city waives none as far as an ultimate readjustment is concerned.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh has come out with the flat statement that not only will he probe to the bottom the scandal growing out of the frauds committed in the New York custom house by the so-called Sugar Trust and its agents, but he proposes to renovate the entire service.

Earl Bullock, the Kansas boy bandit, who one month ago robbed a bank at Eudora and killed a policeman before escaping, returned to the scene of his crime and after shooting the cashier of another bank, secured several hundred dollars and made off. He was hotly pursued and when capture was imminent, shot himself. It is not believed he will recover. A youthful companion was captured.

Thomas Jefferson Hoal, a 17-year-old boy, caused a reign of terror in New Albany, Ind., while attempting to rob the Merchants' National Bank. He shot and instantly killed "Garry" Fawcett, cashier of the constitution, and then probably fatally wounded President J. K. Woodward and a Negro chauffeur. He was captured and narrowly escaped lynching. Hoal now occupies a cell in the Indiana Reformatory.

A Scolded Boy's Shrieke

horrified his grandmother, Mrs. Maria Taylor, of Nebo, Ky., who writes that, when all thought he would die, Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured him. Infalible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns, Wounds, Bruises, Cures Fever-Sores, Boils, Skin Eruptions, Chilblains, Chapped Hands. Soon routs Piles. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

E. C. WALTON

JOHN D. WAKEFIELD, representing the Cincinnati Enquirer as political correspondent for Kentucky, selects Judge M. C. Saufley, of Stanford, as the most formidable candidate the Democrats can run for Governor in 1911. Mr. Wakefield is one of the most astute students of political economy in the South and such decision coming from him is worthy of more than passing consideration. No man in the State is more fully acquainted with the short comings of the Democrats in recent campaigns than Mr. Wakefield and no one more thoroughly realizes that the time has arrived when it behooves the Democrats to name men of great ability and untarnished integrity for high positions. Judge Saufley is a living exponent of those great principles upon which good government are founded. He is an orator with no superiors and few equals and a man of large experience, fitting him admirably for the discharge of the momentous duties of the chief executive. If the Democrats will nominate men of Judge Saufley's calibre they need have no fear at the polls. The Advocate stands for such men first, last and all the time.—Advocate.

If the oldest inhabitant ever saw a finer November than the present has so far developed, he hasn't been around to tell us of it. The last few days have been absolutely incomparable, and none has given indication that this is the month of which it was written "The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year." The weather for October seemed to have slipped a cog and is now making up for bad behavior then.

The celebrated trial of Mme. Margherita Steinheil at Paris ended with an acquittal after the jury had deliberated two and one-half hours. Mme. Steinheil was charged with the murder of her husband and step-mother, Mme. Japy. The announcement of the verdict was the cue for a great demonstration by the crowd in court and 10,000 persons massed in the street outside.

CHARLES I. STEWART, former editor of the Lexington Evening Gazette, purchased the Enid, (Okla.) Morning News from Donald Campbell. Mr. Stewart has associated with him a number of Kentucky capitalists. He is a splendid newspaper man and the Kentucky press gives him up with sincere regret.

The election commissioners of Kenton county gave the certificate of election to Frank M. Tracy, democrat, who it was at first thought tied with Judge McD. Shaw, republican, in the race for circuit judge. The canvass of the vote shows that Tracy got 7,160 votes and Shaw 7,159.

WILLIAM J. GAYNOR, Mayor-elect of New York, filed a statement with the Secretary of State, in which he swears that he did not expend any money in aid of his election. He did not swear as to the amount he had his friends put up to make certain his success.

MARSE HENRY WATTERSON is back from across the pond. Read the Courier-Journal for whisky editorials from now on.

POLITICAL.

Judge Thomas J. Nunn, being without opposition, was declared the Democratic nominee for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the First district.

Warner E. Settle was declared the democratic nominee for judge of the court of appeals of the Second district at Owensboro. He had no opposition.

Mai. C. W. Longmire makes announcement that he will again be a candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, subject to the Democratic caucus.

Friends of Theodore Roosevelt are preparing to fight an attempt to discredit the former president, who, they maintain, is to be charged with having protected certain trusts.

The First district democratic Congressional committee has been called to meet in Paducah Dec. 1 to fix the time, place and manner of nominating a candidate for Congress. Congressman Ollie James will have no opposition.

Dr. L. C. Nell concedes the election of Judge Joseph E. Bertram, democrat, State Senator of the 16th district by 13 votes but the judge says his majority will be close to 100. The republican majority in the district is nearly 2,500.

President Taft was warmly welcomed on his visits to Middletown and Hartford, Conn. At Middletown he attended the installation of Dr. Shanklin as president of Wesleyan University and at Hartford he participated in the dedicatory exercises at the new State armory.

Only one lone Republican elected to the Senate, and he fills out an unexpired term, and will not be a "hold-over." And all this happened just when a certain Republican over at the Capitol thought he was getting ready to run for the U. S. Senate; it's too bad.—Kentucky State Journal.

President Taft, still on the go, will make a short excursion from Washington on Friday to speak at the convention of the Atlantic Deepwater Waterways Association in Norfolk, Va. On the following day he has promised to address the Negro and Indian students of the Hampton Institute, at Hampton, Va.

Lincoln county democrats are made of the right sort of stuff. They fight furiously and fast among themselves, but when the general election rolls around they all plant their mark indelibly beneath the rooster, a fact well attested by the splendid democratic majority shown in the election of Nov. 2.—Advocate.

The State Department has called upon the Cuban government for information regarding the new trade treaty between Spain and Cuba reported to have been practically completed. Upon the answer may depend the abrogation of the Cuban reciprocity treaty and the application of maximum duties upon Cuban imports into the United States.

This and That.

Luther Evans accidentally killed his brother Leonard, while carelessly handling a shot gun at Williamstown.

"Aunt" Jane Black, aged 112 years, half Indian and half Negro, probably the oldest woman in Tennessee, is dead at her home at Bristol, Tenn.

Coolly confessing to one murder and 22 robberies, all committed in Atlanta since October 1, Frank Brooks, a 19-year-old Negro, was captured there.

Augustin E. Costello, one of the 40 Fenians who sailed from this country on a filibustering expedition in the "Erin's Hope" in 1867, died in New York, at the age of 60.

John L. Robards, who claims to be the youngest forty-niner who ever left Missouri in quest of gold in the far West, claims to have been born in Lincoln county, Ky., in May, 1838.

Broughton Brandenburg, charged with enticing James Shepherd Cabanne, Jr., from his home in St. Louis, was found guilty in the Criminal Court and sentenced to pay a fine of $500.

Three foreigners were burned to death, five others were seriously injured and twelve others were hurt in a fire in a Pittsburg lodging house.

Dan A. Stuart, one of the most noted sporting men in America, died at his home in New York Saturday from Bright's disease. Stuart promoted the famous Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight at Carson City. He also ran the largest gambling house in Hot Springs for years.

The lives of 460 men were sacrificed in an explosion in the mines of the St. Paul Coal Company at Cherry, Ill. But 25 men escaped after the disaster and six men who went to the rescue of their entombed friends lost their lives in a futile effort. The mine has been sealed up in the hope of checking the flames which broke out after the explosion.

"Labor Sunday" is a suggestion laid before the American Federation of Labor in a resolution introduced by Secretary Frank Morrison at Toronto. The resolution would designate the first Sunday in September of each year as the occasion when the churches of America devote some part of the day to a presentation of the labor question.

MATRIMONIAL.

A four-day bride-groom of New York deserted his bride because she asked him to button her shoes.

Wallace Surber, 24, and Miss Gertie Wheeler, 23, were married at Chestnut Ridge church Sunday.

John Stewart, formerly of Rockcastle but now of Madison, was married last week to Miss Julia Brandenburg, of Berea.

Kr. E. C. Kilburn, a prominent stock trader of West Virginia, and Miss Bettie Haley, of Rowland were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at Mr. J. C. Hayes', Eld. J. T. Livingston officiating.

The wedding of Miss Suzanne Henning, the Kentucky heiress and Antoine, Marquis de Charette, of Paris, in Our Lady's chapel in St. Patrick's Cathedral was one of the most elaborately celebrated of the international marriages that have taken place of recent years in New York.

Theodore Reynolds, one of Waynesburg's prominent merchants, was married at Supt. Garland Singleton's by that gentleman Saturday to Miss Virginia Singleton, the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. W. R. Singleton, also of Waynesburg. The I. J. extends its heartiest congratulations to the happy pair.

There is a married couple visiting this town which, for light weight and youthfulness, takes the cake. The husband is 24 years old and weighs 108 pounds, and the wife is 13 years old and weighs 65 pounds. She wears short dresses and every act is that of a little child. They have been married five months and appear as happy as any couple could be.—Hazel Green Herald.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease. In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredients with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

THE prices for Galvani's show at Walton's Opera House this, Tuesday night, are 10c for children under 10 years; 20c for gallery; 30 and 50c for adults.
THE ladies of the Christian church at Moreland will give a bazaar in the Hunn & Coffey hall, Nov. 20th at 10:30 A. M. Ice served from six to eight thirty P. M. Admission 25c.
THE "younger set" gave an enjoyable hop at Walton's Opera House Friday evening. It was the first effort of some of the youngsters to "perform" in public and the scene at times was rather amusing.
MESSRS. K. L. TANNER, aged 80, James Gooch, 87, Reuben Williams 85, James Dudderar, 90, and L. B. Nunnelley, 87, voted at McKinney in the general election and all voted democratic. This combined age is 429 years.
ACTING GOV. COX has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who fed Paris green to Mr. W. G. Cowan's cattle and killed 20 or more of them. Seems to us it is a rather small reward for so serious a crime.
CHANGE OF TIME.—No. 22, the Louisville-bound afternoon passenger, now gets here at 5:45 instead of 5:27; No. 23, the through passenger from Louisville, arrives 18 minutes earlier, or 10:45 A. M.; No. 27, the local passenger from Louisville, arrives 15 minutes earlier, or 10:32 A. M. There is no change in the other trains.
PROF. GALVANI's perilous carriage drive mind-reading test. Watch for his startling and dangerous blind-folded carriage drive this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, starting from the window where subject is sleeping. He will drive a spirited team of horses while he is blind-folded at break-neck speed and locate various articles which will be hidden by your staunch citizens.

THE turkey crop in Southern Kentucky is the largest in years and that festive bird is a drag at 11c.
THERE will be a pie supper at the Goshen church Friday night. Go and help yourself to delicious pies.

Mrs. MAHAN, wife of D. W. Mahan, the well-known drummer, died in Danville of paralysis Sunday night. She was Miss Lula D. Slaughter and was a most excellent young woman.
TO PRINTERS.—This office has for sale a lot of display and body type which has been used very little, a medium sized imposing stone, a lot of cases, and several cone pulleys. Will go cheap if sold at once. INTERIOR JOURNAL office, Stanford, Ky.
THE court of appeals decided that it is not a violation of the prohibition law to sell a malt beverage containing less than two per cent. of alcohol, but it MUST NOT BE INTOXICATING. In other words there is no law against selling nonintoxicating drinks but there is a law against selling some of the decoctions that were bartered in many places in this section until a few weeks ago.
SENATOR R. L. HUBBLE's majority in this district is 337, Jason Wesley receiving 472 majority in Casey. Senator Hubble's victory is one of the most remarkable in the State, the district last year going 720 republican. When it comes to running, the Senator is there with the goods. We congratulate him on his splendid race and are sure that he will look after the interests of the people of his district carefully and faithfully.
A CINCINNATI whisky house offers to send us a gallon of booze a month if we will run a half column advertisement of the firm's wares. Pretty tempting in this "dry" section, but the I. J. long since cut out whisky advertisements. Lincoln county people have said in thundering tones that they don't want whisky and this paper is democratic in every way and cheerfully submits to the will of the majority, i. e. if it deems that the majority is on the right side.
WILLIS.—News of the death of Heath Willis, which occurred at St. Mary's Hospital, St. Louis, Saturday night cast a gloom over Crab Orchard, and expressions of regret are heard from every lip. He was ill at the hospital, pneumonia having developed, and his condition became so serious that his parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Willis, were called to his bedside more than a week ago. All that could be done was done for him, but he lost ground constantly. Heath was 23 years old and the picture of physical manhood. He was a member of the Christian church, and his cheerful disposition, kind heart and gentlemanly bearing won for him the love and respect of all who knew him. He was generous to a fault, and was never so happy as when doing a favor for a friend or acquaintance. The devotion of parents and son was beautiful and the death of the boy just in the prime of life is a blow to father and mother that only the All Wise being can help them bear up under. Heath went to St. Louis about 18 months ago and accepted a position with the Terminal Co., which place he held until his death. The funeral services and burial will take place at Richmond Wednesday morning. The deepest sympathy of legion of friends goes out to Capt. and Mrs. Willis in their great sorrow. May He who doeth all things well comfort and console this beloved couple in this, the darkest hour through which they have ever had to pass. A FRIEND.

YOU can get all the ingredients for that Thanksgiving black cake at G. D. Hopper's.
FOR RENT.—Harris house on Logan Avenue for 1910. Possession given at once. A. T. Nunnelley.
THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet at the church at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.
FROM Cummins & Wearen's window Prof. Galvani will make his dangerous blind-folded drive this afternoon. At night at Walton's Opera House.
"DUMMY" OWSLEY, colored, was struck by a freight engine Sunday night and received several scalp wounds. As he was out on the street yesterday morning we presume he is not seriously hurt.
THE Danville foot ball team phoned at the 11th hour that it would not be able to fill its engagement with the High School eleven here Friday afternoon. Fear of defeat no doubt inspired the message.
DON'T forget the bazaar to be given on Saturday, Dec. 11, by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. They will have on sale many home-made novelties for Christmas; Colonial rugs, aprons, and cakes, salads, dressed fowls, etc.
Do those who have charge of the Stanford Graded School grounds think they are appealing to the aesthetic senses of their pupils by keeping those grounds littered with loose papers? It occurs to us that a child may be taught to appreciate the beautiful by example, fully as well as by precept.

THE electric lights were turned on Saturday night and there was general rejoicing in town but a half hour later a belt split and now we are in darkness again as far as the incandescents are concerned. The broken belt came near tearing up things and made a narrow escape for Manager Frank Rout and several of his assistants.
NOTE that the court of appeals says that the "near beer" or other decoctions sold in prohibition territory must not be intoxicating. Lincoln county is in prohibition territory and the man who sells intoxicating drinks is liable to be heavily fined and imprisoned. Better be on the safe side and let the malt stuff alone. A hint to the wise is sufficient.
Mrs. W. H. SHANKS gave a delightful dinner Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Samuel Walton Severance, of Louisville. Covers were laid for a round dozen and all were present and greatly enjoyed the hospitality of the charming hostess. The delicious refreshments were furnished by Benedict, of Louisville. Miss Olivia Baldwin, of Madison, sister of Mrs. Shanks, assisted her in entertaining.
BUSTER BROWN has come and gone, but he is not forgotten. The children gave him a regular ovation and he in turn gave our people a very unique and enjoyable entertainment. Walton's Opera House was crowded Saturday afternoon and the splendid advertisement he gave the Brown shoes, sold by Cummins & Wearen, will make that brand go even faster than it now does. Buster Brown was accompanied by his mother, who made the music, and his famous dog, Tige, who helped in the very creditable performance. The bright little fellow was the guest of Master Lynn Pence during his stay here.

The great mare, Hamburg Belle, 2:01 1/2, is dead. Her owner had recently paid $50,000 for her.
W. J. Dickenson's barn near Trenton, Todd county, burned and 2,000 pounds of tobacco were consumed.
Two red sows with one small shoat came to my place about Nov. 1. Owner can get them by paying for this notice and their keep. D. B. Tudor, Stanford.

Dark roan steer, weight about 600 pounds, is at my place. Owner can get him by paying for this notice and his keep. S. M. Brown, Stanford, R. F. D. No. 2.

Directum, 2:05 1/2, which set a world's record for four-year-old trotters in 1893 on the Nashville track, died at Savage, Minn. M. W. Savage paid $20,000 for Directum in 1898.

C. T. Bohon, of Lebanon, bought of J. Wesley Hughes, of the West End, six yearlings and two-year-old mules for $775 and of Sam M. Owens four work mules for $450.

W. P. Kincaid bought of Embury Bros. their crop of tobacco—about 50,000 pounds—at 14, 14 1/2 and 15c. Mr. K. says this is the best big crop of tobacco he has seen this year.

Col. I. M. Dunn sold this week to J. C. Johnstone a bunch of 1,000-pound cattle at 4c and a bunch of butcher stuff at 3 1/2c. Eugene Pope, the Lancaster pike farmer, has lost quite a number of fat hogs from cholera.—Advocate.

DANVILLE COURT.—There were only about 50 cattle on the Danville market but they sold at 2 1/2c for butcher stuff to 4 1/2c for good yearlings and two-year-old steers. Mule colts and aged mules were in demand at high prices. The horse market was dull.

The public sale held at Hedgeville Wednesday by J. H. Hutchings was largely attended, bidding was spirited and good prices prevailed. Eight horses and colts brought from $50 to $180; a yearling mule $140, and milk cows from $50 to $65; six Jersey heifers from $20 to $50, and 300 shocks of corn from $1.80 to $2 a shock in the field. Hemp in shock brought $19.50 an acre.—Advocate.

BARGAIN.—354 acres of good land, of which 100 acres is bottom land, eight-room dwelling, two good stock barns, new tobacco barn, 36x96, ice house, buggy house, two corn cribs, etc., two good cisterns, the whole farm being well watered, well fenced and lays well. Will sell as a whole or cut 200 acres with improvements, to suit purchaser, which includes 100 acres as fine bottom land as there is in the county. This is a bargain. See L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

Senator Cullom, of Illinois, wants the Southern Negro disfranchised because he thinks that fear of Negro domination alone keeps the South solid politically. That may be one reason, since Negroes usually vote in a body with the republicans, but the South is democratic from principle, and so long as certain conditions prevail with the party in power, there will be no change in it politically.—Lexington Gazette.

REWARD.

Having suffered considerable annoyance and damage from outlaws, in breaking gate latches and tearing down and destroying my gates, on the county road that runs through my farm, I have concluded to offer a reward for information leading to the conviction of such person or persons, I will therefore give the sum of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties, that have broken the latches on any of my gates, or that have sawed down or torn down any of my gates on the county road which runs from the Hustonsville turnpike to the Millersburg turnpike, through my farm; and I will give the same amount for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties who in the future commit any of the above offenses.
Witness my hand this 10th day of August, 1900.

WATTERSON'S PAPER

Weekly Courier-Journal

.....AND.....

The Interior Journal

BOTH ONE YEAR FOR

ONLY $1.50.

Few people in the United States have not heard of the Courier-Journal. Democratic in all things, fair in all things, clean in all things, it is essentially a family paper. By a special arrangement we are enabled to offer the WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL one year and this paper for the price named above. Send your subscription for the combination to us—not to the Courier-Journal.

We are now ready to show you one of the best lines of Men's, Youths and Children's Clothes ever shown the people for the lowest prices. Also a new and up-to-date line of Overcoats and Cravattes from $7.50 to $20. Good values. Come in and let us show you. Am sure you will be pleased with this line.
